

190 Queen's Gate restaurant at The Gore London – Starhotels Collezione celebrates English Wine Week with a quintessentially English partnership and exclusive wine pairing dinners

London, 11th June 2024 - In honour of the upcoming English Wine Week, The Gore London – Starhotels Collezione has announced an exciting new partnership with two English wine producers, Highweald and Sandridge Barton. This partnership underscores The Gore's commitment to supporting local winemakers and the burgeoning popularity of English wines, offering guests an opportunity to experience the finest local vintages in an elegant setting.

To mark the occasion, 190 Queen's Gate, the hotel's acclaimed restaurant, will host two exclusive evenings on June 18th with Highweald and June 20th with Sandridge Barton, featuring a bespoke four-course menu, plus canapés, curated by award-winning Head Chef Frederick Forster. Known for his innovative approach and dedication to quality, Forster's delicate, classic cuisine will feature dishes such as Cornish crab tarts, roasted breast of Barbary duck or white asparagus with corn-fed chicken raviolo, all to perfectly complement the showcased wines. Each course will be expertly paired with a complimentary wine from the selected vineyards, offering a unique gastronomic experience that highlights the excellence of English wines.

The exclusive wine pairing dinners will be priced at £70 per person. Both menus available have been carefully curated by experts for the occasion to highlight the aroma, flavour and texture of each of the wine choices.

Guests attending the dinner on June 18th can look forward to a selection of Highweald's finest wines. The award-winning winery, located in the beautiful Sussex, is renowned for its exceptional sparkling wines that capture the essence of the English countryside with remarkable quality and character. Highweald's commitment to sustainable farming and innovative winemaking techniques has earned them a reputation as one of England's premier wine producers.

On June 20th the dinner will feature a curated selection of Sandridge Barton's best vintages, made from grapes grown in the Dart Valley, Sharpham. Sandridge Barton is one of the pioneers of the English wine industry, with over 40 years of history. The vineyard has won several national and international awards, including three gold medals at the Sommeliers Choice Awards, and is celebrated for its diverse range of still wines, crafted with a focus on sustainability and respect for the environment.

The Gore London – Starhotels Collezione offers the unique opportunity to celebrate English Wine Week in style. The intimate setting of 190 Queen’s Gate, combined with the expertise of Chef Forster and the exceptional wines from Highweald and Sandridge Barton, create an unforgettable dining experience, a celebration of viticulture and culinary artistry in the heart of South Kensington.

“As a quintessentially English hotel, and an emerging leading destination in London that champions English Sparkling Wine, we’re looking forward to celebrating the upcoming arrival of English Wine Week this month at our restaurant, 190 Queen’s Gate” comments the Hotel Manager J-J Pollak.
